

CATHOLIC UNION SUMMER GATHERING at AYLESFORD PRIORY

Aylesford Priory (traditionally known as “The Friars”), near Maidstone in Kent was founded in 1242. It was returned to Catholic ownership in 1949 and rededicated after beautiful restoration in 1965. St Simon Stock whose relics are kept at the Priory had a vision of Our Lady which led to the scapular becoming an important Marian devotion. The Priory is a popular attraction with a gift shop and pottery. See www.thefriars.org.uk.
