PROGRAMME

12.30 – Arrivals and Buffet Lunch with wine

14.00 – First Session

15.00 – Tea/Coffee

15.30 – Second Session

16.30 – Optional Tour of the Stonyhurst Collections

17.30 – Departures

18.00 – Optional Parish Mass at St Peter's Church (Vigil for Sunday)

20.00 – Optional Dinner at the Shireburn Arms, Hurst Green

Sunday 30 June – At leisure for those staying over on Saturday night (see below)

We hope that Sir Edward Leigh MP and Lord David Alton will be able to join us for the afternoon sessions.

Sunday 30 June - Those staying over on Saturday night may wish to attend the 11am Mass on Sunday for the College at St Peter's Church or to explore the famous Tolkien Trail (see www.christianheritagecentre.com for a guide to the Trail –click under “more” – and more details about the Christian Heritage Centre).

Cost – The basic charge for attending the Lunch and Summer Gathering is £25. There is an additional optional charge of £10 for the Stonyhurst Collections Tour. Dinner at the Shireburn Arms is not included and we will each pay our own costs on the night. The Shireburn Arms is a 20 minute walk from Stonyhurst College.

Overnight Accommodation – The Christian Heritage Centre has well appointed single rooms at £45 and twin rooms at £60 for bed and breakfast.

Transport – The nearest National Rail station is Preston. The fastest journey time from London Euston is just over two hours. The cost of a taxi from Preston to Stonyhurst or vice versa is about £20 (i.e. £5 per person if four people share).
