

- Education: Further expand parental choice – academies and free schools have improved results. Require universities to incorporate an obligation to protect legal free speech.
- Aid: Redirecting 50% of the foreign aid budget (£40 billion over a five-year term).
- Migration: Crack down on illegal immigration and stop the human tragedy associated with human trafficking. Always provide a humane welcome for genuine refugees.
- Housing: Simplify planning consents for Brownfield sites. Change the process for outline planning consents. Allow more flexibility in the number of affordable homes within a development scheme.

- Culture: Tackle our toxic political culture by exploring measures such as new codes of conduct to embed compassion and co-operation in all aspects of public life.
- Migration: Scrap the Home Office and instead create a Ministry for Sanctuary and a Ministry of the Interior. The Ministry for Sanctuary will be responsible for enforcing migration rules with compassion. End indefinite detention and close immigration detention centres.
- Aid: Phase an increase in spending on foreign aid from 0.7% to 1% of our Gross National Income by 2021.
- Equalities: Defend the right of people of all faiths to express their faith in religious clothing, food or reasonable accommodation of religious observance.
- Life: Extend the EU's Charter of Fundamental Rights to give women in all EU countries access to legal, safe and affordable abortion services.

- Child Poverty: A new £35 a week payment for every child in low income families. Free care and education for all 1-3 year olds.
- Housing: Target of 20,000 new homes over five years. Support the homeless charity "Crisis" plan to end homelessness by 2041. Abolish the Vagrancy Act 1824.
- Prisons: Use suspended sentences for women charged with non-violent crimes to dampen disruption to them and their family.
- Equalities: Publish a human rights charter for Wales to protect the most vulnerable. Support reform of the Gender Recognition Act to introduce a streamlined, de-medicalised process. Include "gender identity" as a protected characteristic under the Equality Act.

- Welfare: SNP will demand the end of the two-child benefit cap, the rape clause, and a halt to Universal Credit.
- Migration: End indefinite immigration detention. Oppose the detention of children and vulnerable people.
- Aid: Keep commitment to spend 0.7% of GDP on foreign aid.
- Defence: Oppose the retention or renewal of Trident. Nuclear weapons are immoral, ineffective and expensive. We will press the UK government to meet their legal obligations on nuclear disarmament.
